Advent Preparation

The Church loves making lists (3 of these, 12 of that, etc.) So here are seven suggestions of things to do (or not) this Advent in preparation for Christmas.

1) Go to confession.

Some people go twice a year, some every week, some never go...It would be good to go to confession/reconciliation during Advent.

2) Reach out to a friend you haven't contacted in a long time.

Warning: if you are married, maybe it is not a good idea to reach out to an old boyfriend/girlfriend. 😊

3) Increase mass attendance.

Prioritize Sunday mass and try to come maybe once a week.

4) Pray before meals.

Something simple and short: "Bless us oh Lord and these thy gifts..." But consistently, especially if there are children in the family. 🙏

The next three are way more challenging:

5) Reduce alcohol consumption.

If you drink two glasses of wine a day, cut down to one. 🍷

If you drink just one, keep drinking one. (If you drink 4 or 5 glasses a day....Go to AA!)

6) Heal family rifts.

It is crazy not to talk to your brother, or father or mother. To the degree that it is possible, reach out, even if you are right and they are wrong.

and lastly, the most difficult of all...

7) Reduce time in social media (internet, Instagram, Tik-Tok).

Zero tolerance to use the cell phone during meals. Many of us spend too much time in detriment of relations to family and friends.

Advent is another chance to cast out the deeds of darkness and experience the True Light.
